Newsletter notice (longer version)

Our parish is holding a Second Collection for the charity Life on ProLife Sunday, 7 February. Our support has enabled them to advance the Gospel of Life by providing long term support and a safe place where the most vulnerable women can turn - the pregnant and homeless, those escaping abuse, trafficked or otherwise at risk. It is thanks in part to our donations that Life can offer practical help, emotional support, counselling and, for the most desperate of cases, supported housing to those who think they have run out of options other than to end their pregnancy. Life upholds the utmost respect for human life and helps more than 150 women every single day. This collection will be used solely in the Birmingham Archdiocese, so thank you for joining me in helping Life through this Second Collection.

Priest's notice to be given during Mass before the Second Collection

This coming 7 February is ProLife Sunday and our parish is holding a Second Collection for the charity Life on this day. Our support in the past has enabled them to advance the Gospel of Life by providing long term support and a safe place where the most vulnerable women can turn - the pregnant and homeless, those escaping abuse, trafficked or otherwise at risk. It is thanks in part to our donations that Life can offer practical help - anything from nappies to baby buggies - emotional support, counselling and, for the most desperate of cases, supported housing to those who think they have run out of options other than to end their pregnancy. Life upholds the utmost respect for human life and during the Corona Virus pandemic they have seen a huge rise in demand, now helping more than 150 women every single day. This collection will be used solely to meet the need in the Birmingham Archdiocese, so thank you for joining me in helping Life through this Second Collection.
